Principal's Message Mr. Dean MacInnis

Welcome back! I hope everyone had a wonderful and safe Christmas break. Students should be finishing up any class assignments and preparing for exams. See inside for more study tips and for the exam schedule.

Congratulations to our Badminton players. SJF was awarded the banner for 19U. Also a big congratulations to all the students who made their respective AWG teams this past December. Good luck at the games!

Our Northern Studies classes recently took part in the blanket exercise. The blanket exercise is an interactive education program that teaches the history of Indigenous peoples in Canada. See inside for pictures.

Music is back at Sir John, On Wednesday, December 14 th our music department hosted their first Christmas concert since COVID. It was wonderful to see so many people out to celebrate and enjoy an evening of music and socializing. See the photos in the newsletter of the night.

Staff and students enjoyed a wonderful Christmas assembly and luncheon on the last day before winter break. Inside the newsletter you will see photos of it and other holiday festivities that occurred the month of December.

As we get closer to exams, remember that teachers are here to help you if you need additional help. The first day of Semester 2 is Friday, January 27 th and report cards will be posted on PowerSchool at 3:30pm on Friday, February 3, 2023.

École Sir John Franklin High School Tutoring Guideline and Resources

School options

All teachers offer extra help during lunch and after school hours. Each teacher sets their own times and students are responsible for communicating with their teachers and finding out when they are available to help. It is up to the students to use this extra support.

Our Program Support Teachers may have a limited list of grade 12 students that can offer tutoring during the school day. Students can meet with their Program Support Teachers to discuss if this would be a good option and if there is availability. Payments would be arranged directly to the student tutor by the family.

If you know of any Sir John students interested in tutoring, they can connect with their teachers and/or Program Support Teacher.

Yellowknives First Nation

Students who belong to the YKDFN band can access free in-person tutoring services. For more information, go to:

<https://ykdene.com/government/education/dechita-naowo/youth-young-adult-programs/tutoring-program/>

Northern Compass (Northern Youth Abroad)

Any student in high school or postsecondary (college, university, upgrading, or trades) from Nunavut, the NWT or Yukon can sign up for free tutoring! You do not have to be currently living in your home community to access tutoring. This is an online option. For more information, go to:

<https://nya.ca/tutors/>

Funding for Indigenous Students

If students/families are looking to hire a tutor outside of school and are seeking funding, the school can write a letter of support for Indigenous students applying for specialized funding. Please contact your Program Support Teacher if you require assistance. For more information on Jordan's Principle, go to:

We are pleased to announce that this year École Sir John Franklin High School students have won four awards. This is an impressive achievement, and the SJF staff is very proud of the young people recognized. Each recipient will receive a $500 scholarship from YK1 for each Minister's Award earned.

SJF would also like to acknowledge Zoe Clark for being awarded the Governor General's Award. This award is presented to the graduating student who has maintained the highest academic average over her final two years of high school.
