Birchbark Discovery Centre

Lifelong Learning

The Birchbark Discovery Centre is a community-based, multi-aged group, alternative education program based out of Mildred Hall School.

The program aligns itself with YK1's evaluation and reporting process. The NWT curriculum is followed as outlined by the GNWT Department of Education, Culture and Employment.

Place Consciousness

5 Guiding Principles

1. Children are at the centre of their own learning
2. Learners are encouraged to be creative, innovative and take risks
3. Diverse and flexible learning pathways are supported
4. Learning is a partnership
5. Everyone is a learner and everyone is a teacher

Inquiry-Based Focus

The Birchbark Discovery Centre is based out of YK1's Mildred Hall School

The Birchbark Discovery Center:

- Facilitates student learning in a multi-age grouping (currently three classes, grade 1/2, 3/4 and 5/6)
- Fosters a diverse class of learners who benefit from self-directed and inquiry based learning
- Maximizes community involvement and integration to complement the curiosity and learning drives of the students
- Gives children the opportunity to learn about the things that interest them the most
- Receives support from the teacher and families to maximize the child's learning experience
